Dear City of Chicago
Independent Police Review
Authority:

I contacted the Chicago
Police Department Dec. 22,
2014, to come to my home at

12/23/2014

CPD 0270706

██████████ After two hours of waiting nobody showed up, so I called back. I waited another hour. Finally Sergeant McAllister from the 19th district came to my building, but she never came to my apartment as requested and which is the norm when I contact police. She was in my building about 9 minutes talking to security and someone in the building, but she never spoke to me. I was the one who called her, not security. Therefore, it is reasonable that she'd speak directly to me, not to people against whom I've complained in the past and who have a history of abuse against me. It seems like the Chicago Police Department has ignored threats to my safety and other concerns. When I called the police again, I was informed that Sgt McAllister told them she'd already responded to the call even though she never spoke to me. After another hour of waiting, I informed them that I'd follow up with a formal complaint. Feel free to write to me at [REDACTED]
